

for I.W.
External Digestion

S.W. Black

Felix Mendelssohn (1809–1847)
tune of Hark! the Herald Angels Sing

1. I would love to eat some-thing that would not sit in my stomach
2. Have you thought of eat-ing food that was green and some-times rude?
3. Have you con - sid-ered eat-ing love - ly beets pur - ple and not mean?

I could eat it while I sing and I don't think I would need
It could in - sult your knife and say things like, "Don't use that!
Have you con - sid-ered eat-ing some-thing green and quite sli - my?

to chew my food, not at all it would not taste like the fall.
You should not poke or stab things that were liv - ing and bled.
I'm think - ing brus - sels sprouts. Yes, those nas - ty brus-sels sprouts.

Would it taste like a - ny - thing if it didn't hit my mouth? Would
On - ly eat your ve-geta-bles!" At least that's what my ra - dish said.
I have heard they have i - ron if you need that mi - ner - al

it taste like a - ny-thing if I could not taste one bit?
"On - ly eat your ve - geta-bles!" At least that's what my ra - dish said.
Do you need some i - ron? You could eat that in-stead of meat.