Cheese Song

S.W. Black

Anonymous, 19th Century tune of Jolly Old Saint Nicholas

1. I would like to sing a song per - haps a - bout cheese.
2. Have you ev - er con - sid - ered eat - ing some more cheese?
3. I thought you might like to eat a bit of my cheese.
4. I quite thought you might like to eat some more block cheese.
5. I have heard that they put cheese in cof - fee quite fair.
6. Cheese and cheese and love - ly cheese. Please bring me more cheese.
7. Please would you shred some more cheese? Cheese, just please for me.
8. I thought you might like this good cheese song, if you please.

Have you ev - er con - sid - ered some - thing blue or green?
Love - ly litt - le chees - y bits, cheese down to my knees.
And by just a lit - tle bit, I meant pounds of cheese.
Sliced cheese and shred - ded cheese and love - ly string - y cheese.
I have heard that they might put cheese up - on my hair.
Don't mind if I nev - er poop it's on - ly 'cause cheese.
I would like some love - ly cheese. Cheese up - on my cheese.
I thought you were a chees - y, chees - y breez - y breeze.

I real - ly like to eat cheese all the live long day.
Have you ever con - sid - ered cheese on cheese on crack - ers?
I thought you would like to eat pounds and pounds of cheese.
Have you ev - er con - sid - ered lots of love - ly cheese?
Cheese might help my hair, it grow. Grow and bring de - light.
I'm going to take more pic - tures, please could you just cheese?
Cheese would you smile a bit more. Cheese, would you please cheese?
I thought you could use some more lit - tle slice - y cheese.

I real - ly thought you might like to eat cheese that way.
Cheese stacked up on cheese a - gain. It's not that quack - ers.
Or per - haps this real - ly is just sil - ly old me.
I real - ly like cream cheese to cheese up - on my cheese.
Love - ly and soft like soft cheese it would be quite nice.
Cheese and love - ly cheese a - gain. More of this good cheese.
Cheese, you're such a chees - y chap. Cheese - y down to knees.
Per - haps up - on your crack - ers or left in your cheeks.
